ITEMS FROM HARBOR FRONT

There are four hundred men in the crew of the Solace.

Captain Pond of the Iroquois made a call on board the Solace just after her arrival yesterday afternoon.

Purser Jacob of the James Mackee resigned yesterday morning to accept a better position in town. His place is to be taken by a Mr. Liudemann.

The Australia sails for San Francisco at 4 o'clock this afternoon. She will have both passenger and freight accommodations taxed to their utmost.

Ensign Campbell of the Solace was here in the Bennington and went with that ship to Manila. At that place he was detached for duty on the Solace. Lieut. Gorge is another kamaina here who is aboard the Solace. He, however, is a passenger.

General King Not Aboard.
The officers of the Solace wish to have contradicted a statement made in another afternoon paper to the effect that General King was a passenger from Manila on that ship. There are none but navy men aboard.
